The College of Arts & Sciences looks forward to helping faculty and departments advance their curricular goals. Please contact this office with questions regarding course/program development and issues surrounding undergraduate teaching and learning.

Contacts

- Kevin Mihata, Associate Dean for Educational Programs
- Janet Yale, Assistant to the Dean

A&S Curriculum Deadlines

For the three academic year quarters ? Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters ? the recommended deadline for submission for all course, program, and course fee forms and supporting materials is the first day of the quarter, two academic quarters before the requested approval quarter. For final deadlines, see the Curriculum Deadlines [1] for 2017-2018.

NOTES:

- All New Course and Course Changes need to be submitted using the UW CM [2] online process (KUALI).
- To drop a course, please continue to use the paper Course Change Proposal for the time being.
- All paper forms are available on The University Curriculum Office [3] website.
- Prerequisite changes can be submitted via the online Prerequisite Change Form [4].

Course and Program Development

- University of Washington Curriculum Planning Office [5]
- Request to Add or Change a Course Fee Form [6]
- General Information About Curriculum Planning in Arts & Sciences [7]
- Arts & Sciences Guidelines for Review of Courses and Undergraduate Programs [8]
  - New Course Applications [9]
  - Change Course Applications [10]
  - New or Revised Undergraduate Degree Programs and Admissions Requirements [11]
  - Procedures for Establishing New Undergraduate Majors and Degrees [13]
  - Procedures for Non-substantive Course Changes [14]
- Information on the Diversity Requirement [15]
- Proposal Tracking [16]
Other Resources

- University of Washington Curriculum Planning Office [17]
- Curriculum Transformation Project [18]
- Tools for Transformation [19]
- Uwired [20]

Source URL: https://admin.artsci.washington.edu/curriculum

Links:
[2] https://uw.kuali.co/cm/#/courses